

DREAM BOY

NARCOTIC HEARTS

Doin' Well

NEW SINGLE 9 MAY

"Dream Boy Doin' Well's dystopian pop petulantly stamps its rhythmic authority with its ominous infestation of craft and genre varied glam rock sound."

- Ringmaster Review

New Narcotic Hearts single Dream Boy Doin' Well is a 'distopo drama' viewed through the Black Mirror. But who or what IS Dream boy? Could it be you?

Dream boy is a distopo drama viewed through the Black Mirror.

Dream boy lives in a dayglo world of total tech reliance and he wants more!

He wants to be told who to be, what to buy, how to look, what to dream

His world is inhabited by bug eyed beings from the soundgarden video for Black Hole Sun.

He doesn't want a slice, he wants to be the cake.

He's like Mr Benn, he tries on a new him everyday.

He wants 12 fingers and a horses body

He wants to be a mermaid with Elvis sideburns cycling through a galactic rainbow on a chopper bicycle..

He has given up on such trivialities as privacy and personality and is pursuing the Dream of 100% immersion in social engineering.

He is living in a Truman show world but doesn't care.

His delusions all become reality.
